Man dies after falling from scaffolding in Ellicott City

Howard County police have responded to an unattended death in which it appears a man fell from scaffolding and died. Preliminarily, it appears to be accidental.

Police were called at 3:35 p.m. with a report that a man working behind a business in the 8200 block of Main Street had fallen from scaffolding. When units arrived, they found the man deceased at the scene.

The man's identity will be released after next-of-kin has been notified. It appears the incident was accidental.
