

Enjoy Sports, Arts & Crafts, FunFit Fridays, Trips & Special Events!

This licensed program provides a safe, supervised environment for middle schoolers. Participants enjoy art, community outings, crafts, games, homework time, sports, and special events. (Special events and trips may require an additional fee.) The club begins when school dismisses and ends at 6pm.

The Can-Teen Club is licensed through the Maryland State Department of Education Office of Child Care. Site staff are trained and take continuing education classes. The program is a successful participant in Maryland EXCELS. EXCELS' qualifications are based on nationally-recognized quality standards and best practices. The Howard County Department of Recreation & Parks is a recognized leader in opportunities for individuals with disabilities and is pleased to comply with all Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations. Accommodations are made on an individual basis.
