UPDATE: Police identify driver, passenger in Route 100 collision

Howard County police are identifying the driver and passenger involved in a single-vehicle collision that occurred at approximately 9:43 a.m. on Route 100 at Executive Park Drive in Ellicott City.

A Pontiac G5 was traveling westbound on Route 100 when it left the roadway for an unknown reason and rolled several times.

The driver, Keith Charles Quigg, 31, of Hagerstown, is currently stable at the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center.

The passenger, Nicole Marie Ashby, 31, of Hagerstown, is currently listed in critical condition at Howard County General Hospital.

Preliminary investigation revealed neither was wearing a seatbelt. There were no other passengers in the vehicle; no other vehicles are believed to be involved.

Route 100 westbound was closed between Route 108 and Executive Park Drive for approximately three hours as police investigated.
