Shooting victim pronounced dead at hospital overnight

Anyone with information should contact police

Howard County police are continuing to investigate a fatal shooting that occurred last night in Columbia and are asking anyone with information to come forward.

Officers were called to the 5500 block of Harpers Farm Road at approximately 10:20 p.m. for a report of an adult male with a gunshot wound.

The victim, Meiko Anthony Locksley, 25, of Grand Banks Road in Columbia, was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center, where he was pronounced dead overnight.

Multiple callers reported hearing a single gunshot in the neighborhood and a resident located Locksley outside and called 911.

Police have no additional information about a possible suspect or motive at this time.

Investigators are seeking information from anyone who may have been in the area and heard or seen something around the time of the shooting. Anyone with information about this incident should contact police at 410-313-STOP or HCPDcrimetips@howardcountymd.gov.
