Burglary arrest update

Police received reports that on April 6, a male suspect was seen on surveillance video attempting to enter a residence and a business in Glenwood – a house in the 3600 block of Broadleaf Court and various buildings at the Cattail Creek Country Club. No entry was gained at either location and nothing was reported stolen. Through investigation, police identified the suspect and are charging Joseph Micah Burgess, 26, of Cedar Garden Road in Baltimore, with fourth-degree burglary, rogue and vagabond, and related charges. He is currently in custody in a neighboring jurisdiction.
