Police investigating serious Elkridge collision One victim transported to hospital

Howard County police are investigating a serious two-vehicle collision in Elkridge.

At approximately 8:00 a.m., an Infiniti QX70 was traveling eastbound on Route 108 at Lark Brown Road when it collided with a Nissan Versa turning left on Lark Brown from the westbound lane of Route 108.

The driver and sole-occupant of the Nissan, a 33-year-old female from Baltimore, was transported to Howard County General Hospital with critical injuries.

The driver and sole-occupant of the Infiniti, a 46-year-old female from Ellicott City, was not injured.

Police will update with driver information and condition when possible.

Route 108 eastbound was closed at Lark Brown Road and Lark Brown was closed in both directions for approximately two hours.
