

FILTER: Operation and Maintenance

- Maintenance activity is required on an annual basis or after a petroleum spill.
- Maintenance is required when trash, debris, or sediment is present in the filter or manifold system.
- When media becomes saturated and is no longer removing pollutants, replace cartridges and remove all debris and sediment within the system.
- Ensure all piping and fittings are secure and that all controls are unclogged. Flush with water if necessary.

