Police investigating collision involving pedestrian in Elkridge

Howard County police are investigating a collision involving a pedestrian that occurred overnight in Elkridge.

At approximately 12:18 a.m., a 2015 Honda Accord was traveling southbound on Washington Boulevard near Troy Hill Drive when it struck a pedestrian that was walking in the travel portion of the roadway.

The pedestrian, Eugene Dudley Plum Jr., 38, of Elkridge, was transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center with serious injuries.

The driver and sole-occupant of the Honda, Samer Abou-Seif, 57, of Laurel, was not injured and remained at the scene. The investigation is ongoing.

Southbound lanes were diverted around the scene overnight but have since reopened.
