Police investigating fatal collision in Columbia

Howard County police are investigating a fatal single-vehicle collision overnight in Columbia.

At approximately 1:59 a.m. Sunday, a 2011 Honda Element was traveling eastbound on Route 175 approaching Tamar Drive when it left the roadway for an unknown reason and struck a traffic light pole. The driver and sole occupant, 24-year-old Elysse Camacho of College Park, was transported to University of Maryland Shock Trauma where she was pronounced dead.

Police are continuing to investigate the cause of the collision.
