Police investigating fatal pedestrian collision involving MARC train

Howard County police are investigating a fatal pedestrian collision involving a MARC train in Elkridge.

Officers were called to the 5800 block of Race Road at approximately 8:32 a.m. for a report that a MARC train struck an adult female.

Lynette Michelle Green, 32, of Elkridge, was pronounced dead at the scene.

According to witnesses, the train conductor tried to prevent the collision and used his horn when he saw Green on the tracks, but they reported that she did not move.

Investigation into the circumstances of the collision is ongoing.
