Impaired driving enforcement detail results in arrest of 11 drivers

The Howard County Police Department conducted an impaired driving enforcement detail over the weekend, resulting in the arrest of 11 impaired drivers.

The detail supplemented normal patrol staffing and was funded by a grant from the Maryland Highway Safety Office.

The following drivers were arrested and charged with driving under the influence:

Kaia Johnson, 25, of Brooklyn
Ometriss D. Rich, 26, of Baltimore
William J. Rich Sr., 59, of Catonsville
Takirah D. Mitchell, 29, of Jessup
Travis W. Herren, 28, of Arbutus
Ramon M. Perea, 24, of Columbia
Jon D. Hermann, 32, of Elkridge
Archibald N. Stewart, 50, of Germantown
Matthew F. Schuyler, 20, of Taneytown
Kevin R. Jennings Jr., 32, of Randallstown

Police remind citizens to always designate a sober driver or refrain from drinking alcohol if they will be driving. If you see a suspected impaired driver on the road, please call 911.

The department will continue to use these grant-funded supplemental patrols throughout the holidays to help move Maryland Toward Zero Deaths. More information on the state-wide initiative can be found at www.towardzerodeathsmd.com.
