Police investigating non-fatal double shooting in Laurel Drugs located at the scene

Howard County police are investigating a non-fatal double shooting that occurred Dec. 18 in Laurel. Two victims are in Shock Trauma receiving treatment for their injuries.

Kaiyon Stanfield, 20, of Columbia and Khalil Stanfield, 21, of Silver Spring are both in critical condition. The two are believed to be cousins.

Police were called around 1:30 p.m. for a report of gunshots in the 9400 block of Woodsong Court. Officers arrived and found Kaiyon Stanfield in a car suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. They also located Khalil Stanfield a short distance away in the 9300 block of Daly Court, suffering from gunshot wounds.

Police found drugs at the scene and believe the incident may have been drug-related.

Anyone with information about this incident should contact police at 410-313-STOP or HCPDcrimetips@howardcountymd.gov.
