

GREEN ROOF: Operation and Maintenance

- Green roofs require annual maintenance to ensure optimum performance. Typically, eighteen months are needed to establish adequate initial plant growth. Periodic irrigation may be needed during this time and basic weeding, fertilizing and in-fill planting may be required as well. After plants are established, the roof should be inspected, and light weeding performed once or twice per year.

