

Coloring Book Contest!

How do you practice the 3 R's - Reduce, Reuse, Recycle? Show us!

The Howard County Recycling Division is challenging Howard County third, fourth and fifth graders to draw pictures of how they reduce, reuse, and recycle at home or at school. The top 13 drawings will be featured in a coloring book, with the “best in show” appearing on the cover.

Winning artists will receive framed certificates, and of course, their drawing, including their name and school, will be featured in a coloring book that will be available to the Howard County community!

To Enter:

1. Using black marker or ink, draw entries on white, unlined 8 ½”x11” paper. Please don’t color in the drawing!
2. Entries should feature at least one of the three R’s (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle) being practiced.
3. On the back of the completed drawing, please include the student’s name, address, grade and school attended.
4. Please mail, or deliver, completed entries to:

Meleine Yao, Recycling Coordinator
Bureau of Environmental Services,
9801 Broken Land Parkway
Columbia, MD 21046

Questions: (410) 313-6434 or myao@howardcountymd.gov
