

INFILTRATION BERM: Operation and Maintenance

- Berms should be inspected regularly to ensure that ponding water does not create nuisance conditions.
- Signs of concentrated flow and other surface erosion should be repaired to promote sheetflow.
- A dense array of vegetation should be present at all times. Vegetation should be replaced as needed.

