

Foreclosure Prevention Program

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- 1. Are there eligibility guidelines that must be met in order to receive assistance?
Yes. Total household income cannot exceed 80% of Howard County median income at time of application (see chart below). The property must be in Howard County and must be your primary residence.

Maximum Permitted Household Income (effective 1/01/21)

1-person household	2-person household	3-person household	4-person household	5-person household	6-person household	7-person household	8+-person household
$65,929	$75,347	$84,766	$94,184	$101,719	$109,253	$116,788	$124,323

- 2. My income was reduced due to COVID-19 but I'm over the income limit. Can this program still help me? If it can be documented that at any time during COVID-19, your income was reduced to below the maximum income limits, assistance may be available. Individual circumstances will be reviewed on a case by case basis.
- 3. How much assistance can I receive? The maximum assistance will be based on need and funding availability but cannot exceed 12 months of mortgage payments.
- 4. I lost my job due to COVID-19 and am currently unemployed. Will this program assist me even though I'm unemployed?
Yes. The program can assist in bringing your mortgage current. Referral to a housing counseling agency will also be provided.

If the program will bring my mortgage current but due to reduced income, I can't make my mortgage payments going forward, will this program allow for additional assistance? Do I need to apply every month?

Funding can be provided to bring the mortgage account current. If you are still unemployed or underemployed, we will refer you to a housing counseling agency for budget review and discussion of options.

- 5. Do I need to be in foreclosure or just behind on my mortgage payments?
You do not need to be in foreclosure to receive assistance.
- 6. My mortgage is in forbearance with my lender. Am I eligible to apply?
Yes, funding can be provided to bring mortgage current and discontinue forbearance agreement.
- 7. I received a foreclosure notice. Will this program assist me?
If you meet the eligibility requirements, yes, the program can assist you in bringing the mortgage current.

8. How many months behind on my mortgage payments do I need to be before I can apply to receive assistance?
If you can document a COVID-related loss of household income and are behind on your mortgage payments for at least 3 months, you are eligible to apply for assistance.
9. Is this a loan? Do I need to pay it back?
This is not a loan. No repayment is required.
10. If I meet the eligibility requirements for assistance, how long does the processing take?
If eligible, processing time should take approximately 30 days. If all required documentation has not been received, this may increase the processing time.
11. If I receive assistance, do I need to continue to live in the property for a certain amount of time? No.
12. Why was my application denied? Applications are denied if you don't meet the eligibility requirements or if assistance needed to bring your mortgage current exceeds 12 months of mortgage payments.
