

Jonathan K. Branch Biographical Sketch

Born 26 October 1955 Hometown: Richmond, Virginia Current resides in: Columbia, Maryland

Educated in the Richmond Public School System

Enlisted in the Army on 15 May 1976

Basic Combat Training at Fort Bliss, Texas Advanced Individual Training at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Trained as a Combat Medic/ Emergency Medical Technician

Assigned to 1st Battalion / 13th Infantry in Baumholder, Germany from Feb 1977- September 1979

Assigned to: Dewitt Army Hospital, Fort Belvoir Virginia with duty at U.S. Army Health Clinic, Vint Hill Farms, Warrenton, Virginia September 1979- October 1981

Assigned to: 2nd Battalion/ 4th Infantry in Neu Ulm, Germany from October 1981- April 1982

Transferred to: C Company 2nd Battalion/ 4th Infantry in Heilbronn, Germany from April 1982- December 1985

Served in U.S. Army Reserves: 56th Station Hospital, Richmond Virginia January 1986- May 1989

Attended Nursing School at Virginia Commonwealth University/Medical College of Virginia from January 1986- May 1989 Acquired a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing

Attended the Officer Basic Course, Fort Sam, Houston, TX June 1989- September 1989

Assigned to: Fitzsimons Army Medical Center, Aurora CO September 1989-September 1996

Attended: University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Denver, CO September 1995- December 1996 Master's Degree in Nursing (Adult Health)

Assigned to Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, DC February 1997- August 2001

Retired from the U.S. Army in August 2001 with the rank of Major

Currently works at Walter Reed national Military Medical Center, Bethesda, Maryland as a Registered Nurse

Married to: Delma Branch

Father to: Stephen B. Branch and Nicholas A. Branch

