Briefly describe the purpose and reason for the project:

There are over 20,000 Veterans in Howard County and there is no permanent monument dedicated to their service. The Foundation is creating a major asset to honor all of Howard County's Veterans - past, present and future - and their families by sponsoring the design, construction and ongoing upkeep of a compelling, monumental public space to be located at Vivian C. "Millie" Bailey Park in Columbia, Maryland. This permanent public artwork and public space will be an expression of gratitude for their service and sacrifice, and to recognize that they made possible the freedoms, achievements and prosperity of our nation and community.
