4. Inmates/detainees on segregation or Special Management Unit (SMU) status shall be allowed to shave or to be shaved weekly. Segregation inmates who display unruly or uncontrollable behavior shall not be shaved.

VII. Religion Practice and Grooming Habits

A. Inmates/detainees shall be allowed to practice grooming habits that conform to their established religious beliefs, unless this practice is detrimental to the security and order of the institution.

1. Religious head-wear must be approved by the Deputy Director/designee.

2. Religious head-wear must conform to the religion of record for the inmate/detainee.

3. Inmates/detainees with approved religious head-wear may wear it and/or keep it in their assigned housing unit; it is subject to search at any time. Inmates may not wear religious head-wear when outside of the housing unit. The only exception to this may be female inmates of the Muslim religion or other religion where the religious tenant required such. This will be documented in SallyPort “Notes” section on those who attend congregate services with male inmates. In these cases, the inmates may be allowed to don head-wear to and from the Chapel or other location.

VIII. Inmate/Detainee Dress Code

A. Inmates/detainees may not be totally nude except while taking a shower or during a lawful strip search by authorized staff. Female inmates/detainees MUST wear a bra at all times except while taking a shower and/or sleeping.

B. Minimum appropriate wear when an inmate/detainee is inside their assigned cell, out of bed shall be shorts and a tee shirt or sweat shirt and pants.

C. Minimum appropriate wear when an inmate/detainee is sleeping shall be shorts and tee shirt, or pajamas.

D. When in the day-room area of their housing unit, minimum outer clothing for all inmates/detainees shall be pants, sweatpants or athletic shorts and tee shirt or sweatshirt. All inmates/detainees must wear footwear when outside their cell.

E. Inmates/detainees may wear approved athletic wear (sweat clothing or shorts and tee shirt) when in a recreation yard and/or traveling between their housing unit and the yard. Athletic wear may not be worn outside an inmate’s/detainee’s housing unit other than in a recreation yard or in an emergency such as; fire, bomb threat, and only when directed by security staff to do so or at any other time except for minimum security inmates on work details where such appearance is allowed.

F. Inmates/detainees allowed out of their housing unit for any reason other than going to a recreation yard MUST wear shoes and a complete set of detention center clothing.

1. Inmates/detainees must wear the jumpsuit properly. The jumpsuit MUST be worn on the upper and lower body with the pants legs fully pulled downward.
2. The jumpsuit MUST NOT be covered by any other article of clothing except by department jacket provided to an inmate/detainee for the yard, court or medical transportation. The only exception is for minimum security inmates who work outside in cold weather. These inmates may wear authorized jackets.

G. The only articles allowed to be worn on the head shall be legitimate religious headwear as noted in section II.F. The exception is in cold weather, when minimum security inmates who work outside in cold weather may be authorized to wear hats.

IX. Work Release Inmates / Outside Detail Inmates

A. Inmates on work release/outside detail/weekender status must adhere to the above dress code noted in section III. while in the detention center. Any time a work release/outside detail inmate leaves his or her housing unit and enters the secure side of the detention center, the inmate must be dressed in a minimum-security jumpsuit unless approved by the Administrative Captain or higher authority.

B. Inmates on work release may wear authorized personal clothing suitable to their employment when leaving the detention center for work.

C. Inmates approved for outside detail shall wear authorized clothing as specified in Section VI. below.

X. Laundering – Shall be in accordance with Policy and Procedure F-500, Laundry Services.

XI. Return of Detention Center Property (reference policy C-203)

A. All departmental items issued to inmates/detainees must be accounted for and returned prior to the inmate’s/detainee’s release. This will include, but not be limited to:

1. Clothing (Jumpsuits, Shoes, etc.);
2. Bed linens (Blankets, Sheets, etc.);
3. Razors (to be accounted for and discarded);
4. Towels;
